

Arkwright News Autumn Term

Hope this newsletter finds you all well!

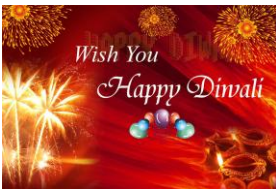

Below is a few reminders of what is happening in school.

Poppies are on sale during playtimes for children to purchase. Children will be learning about the reasons we buy and wear poppies during assemblies and in PSHE.

Mrs Baldantoni would like any toy cars that you are throwing away in order to make space for Christmas toys. The children love playing with the cars and garage at lunchtimes on the terraced area.

Next week is the start of the religious festival Diwali. On Monday children will spend the day working in their house teams and with all the teachers in school to learn about this festival. As part of RE children are expected to learn about Christianity and other religious.

If you wish to purchase your child's school photo and have it in time for Christmas please bring the money to school a.s.a.p.

Pantomime money (£5) needs to be paid a.s.a.p. Children who have not returned the permission slip or money will be issued with another letter. The pantomime is 10th December and more details will follow.

School is closed on 16th November.
